Lake Norman Realty Hosts Christa Faut Art Show

The pairing of art and real estate is on the agenda for an upcoming art show on April 8-9, 2011 from 10:00 am to 2:30 pm. Lake Norman Realty is sponsoring a private art show for the Christa Faut Gallery at the home of Kevin and Noreen O'Brien in River Run at Davidson. The art show will feature many prominent North Carolina artists including Davidson's own Herb Jackson, former professor at Davidson College, whose works are exhibited in over 100 museum collections. Other artists include Elizabeth Bradford, Linda McCane, Ellen Hathaway and many, many others. "This is a great opportunity to work with Lake Norman Realty and the O'Briens to showcase art from several of our wonderful North Carolina artists" said John Ruck, Owner and Director of the gallery.

The Christa Faut Gallery, listed in the "Who's Who in Art," has been part of the Lake Norman area since 1989 and is currently located in Cornelius at Jetton Village. The gallery represents more than 30 nationally and internationally known two-dimensional artists; as well as nationally known metalsmiths, glass and clay artists. Local artists are a focus, but there are also artists represented from as far away as Ireland and Japan. Mid-career artists as well as talented and deserving emerging artists are represented by the gallery.

The April event is being hosted at 18731 Dembridge Drive in River Run at Davidson, a lovely home marketed by Jennifer Arens and Holly MacFalls of Lake Norman Realty. This event is open to the general public. For more information, please call 704/995-6455.

Examples of artwork to be included in the show (photos attached):
